Publications Delayed

Two books scheduled for publication this month by Memphis State University Press have been delayed because of the paper shortage.

The books, "Cal Alley" and "The Horn Island Logs of Walter Inglis Anderson," have been rescheduled for release in the spring.

"Cal Alley," ($15) edited by Dr. Charles W. Crawford, director of oral history at MSU, is a collection of 300 cartoons by Mr. Alley who was editorial cartoonist for The Commercial Appeal from 1945 until his death in 1970.

"The Horn Island Logs" ($18.95) is a selection from the records of the Mississippi artist. The text is accompanied by 40 black and white illustrations and eight pages of color reproductions.
